Admin

As an administrator, I should be able to manage user accounts for students and lecturers.

As an administrator, I should be able to upload and update academic timetables and schedules.

As an administrator, I should be able to manage course information, including course registration and allocation.

As an administrator, I should be able to track and generate reports on student attendance and performance.

As an administrator, I should be able to manage financial records, such as tuition payments and fee statements.

As an administrator, I should be able to send institution-wide notifications or announcements.

Lecturers

As a lecturer, I should be able to upload lecture notes and resources for students to access.

As a lecturer, I should be able to create, assign, and grade assignments and exams.

As a lecturer, I should be able to view class attendance records for my courses.

As a lecturer, I should be able to communicate with students through the system, such as sending announcements or feedback.

As a lecturer, I should be able to view academic progress and performance reports for students in my courses.

Students

As a student, I should be able to access lecture notes, resources, and recorded sessions.

As a student, I should be able to submit assignments and view grades and feedback.

As a student, I should be able to register for courses each semester.

As a student, I should be able to check my attendance and academic performance reports.

As a student, I should be able to communicate with lecturers and administrators for inquiries and support.

As a student, I should be able to access the university timetable and exam schedules.